THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF IN THE SOUTH.

Col. Theodore F. Brown, Senior Vice Commander, Department of Tennessee, who has been accompanying Commander-in-Chief Van Sant as an Aid, writes from Knoxville, Tenn.:

"The Commander-in-Chief's visit in the South, on which he took in every State, was one of the greatest visits ever made by any Commander-in-Chief. There was great enthusiasm in every Department south of the Ohio River. The campfires beat everything in the past that were held as campfires during annual meetings of the different Departments. Great ovations were given him, not only by the comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic, but by the boys who wore the gray. The Southern Departments are stirred up with great enthusiasm by his visit, and with great enthusiasm by his visit, and he did a great work in making a visit to them. We had with us the National President of the Woman's Relief Corps, Mrs. Jennie Iowa Berry."

Comrade Lantz Mustered Out. Mrs. Marie L. Basham, Department President of Iowa, W. R. C., and Na-tional Instituting and Installing Officer, has been called upon to suffer a severe loss in the death of her beloved father Mr. Lloyd Lantz. Comrade Lantz, who died at Bushnell, Ill., was 70 years of age, and had been a great sufferer from heart trouble for many years. He was very prominent in all Grand Army affairs, and had a splendid record in the war. He enlisted in Co. K, 59th Ind. and served three years. His sturdy pa-triotism and loyalty caused him to re-enlist as a veteran in Huntsville, Ala., 1863, and he served until the close of the war.

Many beautiful tributes were paid to his memory. His funeral, which was conducted by the Grand Army of the Republic, was one of the largest ever held in the history of Bushnell, and the floral offerings were numerous.

His Transformation from a Raw Recruit to a Veteran ILLUSTRATED

ROOK No. 1.

By JOHN McELROY

FEW BOOKS in the literary history of this country had such stantaneous success and wide popularity as the "Si Klegg" series. From the very first the story attracted a host of readers, and these increased in geometrical ratio as the publication progressed. It is the story plainly, simply and truthfully told of the development of two green country boys into veteran soldiers of the highest type. The story is told with affec-tionate fidelity by one who marched, camped and fought with them, and there is a universal agreement that it is far the best story of the ex-perience of the enlisted men in the Union Army that has ever been written. Every, detail and incident is so truthful, so like his own experience that the veteran instantly recognizes it with a burst of laughter or the tears welling into his eyes. The abounding humor of the book is one of its most faseinating features. Wherever it is possible to extract tun out of any situation or happening it is done in the real old army way. The heros of the story see the fun themselves at once and the author vividly depicts it.

Everywhere the veterans have laughed and cried over the story, hungered plished from the keyboard for another installment, read selections from it at their Post meetings and Reunions, and have recommended it to their children and friends as the truest of the light running, easy action Model 10 (Visible)

Action Model 10 (Visible) with his transformation from a raw recruit into a soldier and then into a seasoned veteran.

Each volume will be of about 250 pages, printed in large, clear type on good white paper, and bound in paper and cloth. The paper copies will be sent to any address postpaid upon the receipt of 50 cents, and $1.00 for those bound in cloth. The first volume is now under way and will soon be out. It deals with Si Klegg's leaving his Indiana home to enlist and his early experiences in the Army while he was undergoing the haps and mishaps which at length lick THE SMITH PREMIER TYPEWRITER CO.

The second volume will take him up where he has become seasoned to war and carry him thru several battles and campaigns. Other volumes will follow.

Those who have been long desiring copies of the book can at once send in their orders, accompanied by 50 cents for each copy in paper to
